Yesterday, Sarah went to the supermarket to buy some milk and bread. While she was shopping, she met an old friend from college, and they talked for a while. After paying for her groceries, she decided to stop by a nearby coffee shop to have a cup of tea. She stayed there for about thirty minutes, reading a book. When she got home, she realized she had forgotten to buy eggs. She sighed and decided to go back to the store the next day.

La Commissione Esaminatrice
